

The American Civil Liberties Union of Florida Treasure Coast Chapter invites you to

SONGS

of

Protest, Revolution & Audacity

Saturday, March 8th, 6 to 10 PM

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Vero Beach
1590 27th Avenue

ACLU Musician-Donors

CeCe & Ken Conner

Varri Green Farmers Holly & Sal

and Hot Sauce Boy, Lee Carpenter

will gather to perform classic songs of Protest, Revolution & Audacity

ACLU Slow Food Chef & Farmer-Donors

will gather to serve fresh, local food & wine

ACLU Theatre-Donor

Rick Spisak will present 1 Act of his play,

"Bedside Manor"

based on the transcript of the "death" bedside discussion between Attorney General Gonzalez and Secretary of State Ashcroft

&

ACLU of Fl State Board President Jeanne Baker

The fresh local food served requires Reservations & Payment in advance

Tickets are $25

Make checks payable to ACLU of Fl, Treasure Coast Chapter

& send to Chapter Chair T.A. Wyner at 8800 Okeechobee Rd. #36, Ft. Pierce, Fl 34945

For more information call T. A. at 772-465-5658 or email tawyner@acweb.com

###

